

If you are having shipping and distribution issues, you've chose the right place to come. We know the logistics in fashion, and are happy to serve small clients. Whether you are a small manufacturer who needs help in navigating routing guide for a major department store, or a manufacturer shipping tiny orders to specialty stores nationwide, our comprehensive distribution solutions will save you both time and resources.

E com shipping needs such as making special bows or inserting hand written notes to personalize the shopping experience.

International shipment, we can take care of this as well – bulk or e com both. International shipments can be tricky as they require specific knowledge and extra attention for details.
